Wine Description

Our 2015 Noir la Grace auction lot is a true field blend. Block 18, located at the top of our Doe Ridge vineyard, in the Yamhill-Carlton AVA, was planted in 2005 with an adventurous spirit. No single clone was selected for the block, we instead planted a randomized mix of Dijon clone Pinot noir with the hope of truly capturing the essence of the terroir. After fermentation this wine was aged for 18 months in French oak. Aromas of dark fruit and shitake mushrooms with highlights of wild sage and clove. The palate showcases rich tannins and a long enticing finish.

Winery Information

The Four Graces is located in a small historic farmhouse in the heart of the Willamette Valley. Our two vineyards are sustainably farmed and well-tended with the goal of producing rich, elegant, delicious and complex wines. Today The Four Graces is owned by Bill Foley who produces Pinot noir, Pinot gris, and Pinot blanc, renowned nationally and internationally for their balance, elegance, complexity, and richness.
