Wine Description

Nicolas-Jay is pleased to offer a single barrel selection from their flagship estate vineyard: Bishop Creek. For this unique bottling, we have selected the best barrel from the original 1988 plantings of own-rooted Pommard. This wine is both ample and precise, with spicy notes playing against a roasted, earth driven depth. Dark fruit flavors of blackberry, black cherry and cassis complement the dark and roasted savory qualities of the wine. Despite the richness, this Bishop Creek bottling shows impressive tension, finishing with lovely texture and focus.

Winery Information

Nicolas-Jay is the story of a three-decade friendship between famed Burgundian winemaker Jean-Nicolas Méo and visionary music entrepreneur Jay Boberg, and their shared love of Oregon Pinot noir. It is also the story of their desire to build something lasting together, while creating a distinctive expression of great Willamette Valley Pinot noir. At Nicolas-Jay, this is achieved by applying viticultural and winemaking experience gained from working with the Grands Crus of Burgundy to the finest grapes from Oregon.
